

STATE OF ANJOUAN
UNION OF COMOROS
STATUTORY RULES AND ORDERS
005A of 2005.

(Published February 5th 2005)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 26 of the International Banks Act, 005A of 2005, the Minister acting on the advice and recommendation of the Anjouan Offshore Finance Authority makes the following Regulations:-

INTERNATIONAL BANKS REGULATIONS, 005A OF 2005

1. Citation and commencement:

These Regulations may be cited as the International Banks Regulations 005A of 2005, and shall come into operation on the 20th day of February 2005.

2. Interpretation: In these Regulations:-

“Offshore banking business” has the meaning prescribed in section 2 of the Act, but does not include transactions concerning:-

- (a) amounts of money in foreign currencies or in foreign securities;
- (b) personal or movable property situated outside the State;
- (c) real or immovable property situated outside the State; for non resident persons which trust assets, are to be administered, managed or invested or otherwise dealt with for the benefit of such non resident persons and any activities related, incidental or ancillary thereto nor shall a licence under the Act be required for the carrying out or the acceptance in trust of such business unless the person providing such service additionally provides offshore banking services.

3. Application fees for licensing:

(1) An application for a licence under section 4 of the Act, whether for a Class I or Class II licence as described in section 8 of the Act shall be made in duplicate in Form 1 of the Second Schedule and shall be forwarded together with the applicable application fee prescribed in the First Schedule.

(2) The licence fee payable upon the approval of the application for a licence shall be as prescribed in the First Schedule.

4. Form of licence:

A licence granted on an application referred to under regulation 3 shall be in the form prescribed in Form 2 of the Second Schedule.

5. Display of licence:

A licence granted on an application referred to under regulation 3 shall be prominently displayed by the licensee on the premises where the offshore banking business is carried on in the State by:-

- (a) posting the licence on a wall in the main entrance, foyer or hall; or
- (b) displaying the licence by some other method whereby the licence may be easily seen upon first entering the premises of the licensee.

6. Form and fees for renewal of licence:

(1) A licensee shall renew its licence on or before the expiry date in each year by submitting in duplicate, Form 3 prescribed in the Second Schedule duly completed together with the appropriate annual renewal fee prescribed in the First Schedule.

(2) In the event that a licensee fails to renew a licence in the prescribed time, the licensee shall pay a surcharge of one-twelfth of applicable annual renewal fee for each month, or part of a month that the fee is in arrears.

(3) The Authority shall cause a notice of non-renewal of fees to be issued to a licensee which has failed to file a renewal application with the renewal fee or has filed a renewal application which is deficient by reason of:-

(a) improper information;

(b) any other deficiency.

(4) A notice of non-renewal shall be as prescribed in Form 4 of the Second Schedule.

(5) A licensee who fails a renewal application within the prescribed time together with the required fee shall forfeit its licence and if such licensee continues in offshore banking business commits an offence under section 3 of the Act and shall if convicted be liable to the penalty provided under that section.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (5) a licensee who:-

(a) Submits a renewal application within thirty days of the date of a notice of non-renewal;

(b) Pays a surcharge of one-twelfth of the annual renewal fee shall not forfeit its licence nor be liable under the provisions of section 3 of the Act.

7. Licence for an extended period of time:

A licensee who holds a valid licence for a period of five consecutive years may apply for a renewal of its licence for an extended period not exceeding fifteen years from the date of application by submitting in duplicate Form 5 of the Second Schedule duly completed and by payment of the annual renewal fee prescribed in the First Schedule multiplied by the number of years of required extension and by starting the merits of granting to the licensee a licence for such extended period.

8. Application of registered agent:

An application for a licence under section 4 of the Act shall designate one registered agent who shall not be an official of the applicant and the grant of a licence to the applicant shall signify the approval of the registered agent by the Authority.

9. Notification of change of principal office or agent:

(1) A licensee shall under section 7(2) of the Act, notify the Authority of any change in the location of its office in the State or of any change of its registered agent within five days of such change by submitting in duplicate Form 6 prescribed in the Second Schedule duly completed.

(2) A licensee which fails to comply with the provisions of paragraph (1) within the prescribed time shall forfeit its licence and any continuation of offshore banking business shall be in contravention of section 3 of the Act.
